Your experience during COVID-19: I work in MarCom and came across some of my files from last year. These were published in the BlackLens Newspaper for the 22nd annual Get Lit! Festival. The first one ran in March, "V2" ran in April with a due date of March 15 when we still thought things would re-open. V3 is what ran in April to correct V2. The three ads represent a lot of hard planning being de-railed because of the uncertainty of lockdown. They never ended up having an event. The 2021 Get Lit! Festival is virtual.
